

Literary Notes

A LIBRARY IN ITSELF

Few people are able to buy as many books as they would like, yet it is possible without them to keep in touch with all the leaders of literature, as well as to follow the world's progress in every department of science and industry. The Youth's Companion already provides the means for more than half a million households—at an expense to each of $1.75 a year. Every issue of The Companion gives as much reading matter as a 12mo book of 175 pages, and The Companion comes every week. The quality of its contents is shown by the announcement for 1898, which promises contributions next year from the Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, Rudyard Kipling, Speaker Reed, Capt. A. T. Mahan, Mary E. Wilkins, W. D. Howells, Lieutenant Peary, the Marquis of Dufferin, Senator Hoar, Justin McCarthy and more than two hundred other eminent men and women.

All new subscribers for 1898, will receive The Companion's gold-embossed calendar; beautifully printed in twelve colors, and the paper will also be sent free from the time the subscription is received until January, 1898, and then for a full year to January 1899. A handsome illustrated prospectus of the volume for 1898 will be sent to any one addressing

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,

THE LIVING VOICE

The Living Voice, a small booklet of 42 pages, by Mary Deitz, Hudson, Iowa, is being very favorably received. The author has in possession some very valuable testimonies, a few of which we give below:

I have read The Living Voice which you sent me with interest. You are in earnest and earnest people always do good when they have something to say. The subject you deal with is of great importance and you present it well. I hope you may be blest in your effort to do good. James H. Jackson, M. D., Jackson Sanatorium, Dansville, New York, May 3, 1897.

Rev. W. M. Lyon, of 315 9th St., S. E., Washington D. C., who is engaged in Home Missionary Work, writes under date of July 21, '97 and says: "I have read The Living Voice. Accept my thanks for the gift. I heartily concur with the sentiments expressed and pray that the same may be widely and exquisitely circulated and wonderfully blessed of God."

Anthony Comstock, of New York City, who for over twenty years has been one of the leaders in the "Society for the Suppression of Vice," under date of July, '97, says: "I have just finished reading The Living Voice which you so kindly sent me. I think you must have been inspired in writing this booklet. Unlike many an attempt along this line you have not fallen into the errors that many others have of writing a book that would be unwise for young people to read. I think it would be helpful to every young man and woman if they would carefully and prayerfully read this book. Wishing you abundant prosperity and success."

The Living Voice is a guide to social purity which tells in a forcible manner how the way may be opened for the acceptance of divine love as the true basis for marriage. The booklet will be sent prepaid at 15c. per copy. Address, L. Mary Dietz, Hudson, Iowa.

Do you believe on the name of the Son of God as the only Savior of lost sinners? When the truth is believed in the heart, that soul has an earnest of eternal life. Faith comes by hearing the word of truth.—William Jackson, D. D.
